

James Leslie Anthony
6854 Westlake Avenue
Dallas, Texas 75214
USA

Professional Experience:

XMT, Inc. : October 1996 – Present
Dallas, Texas

President - Manage consulting firm, lead project teams within client environment tasked with the evaluation of oil and gas exploration and production opportunities. Coordinate preparation of client's required documents for financial sanction, present commercial cases to corporate management, represent client in dealings with government officials.

- Providing strategic and business planning for client's Arctic Renewal program (BP)
- Provided analysis and commercial support for Beaufort Sea acreage acquisition. (BP)
- Created integrated project team model for use within JV developing offshore Ghana discoveries, providing ongoing support to commercial team. (Kosmos Energy)
- Created integrated analysis model in support of client's shale gas strategy, resulting in successful Woodford Shale property acquisition. (BP)
- Analyzed exploration portfolio and made recommendations for meeting corporate targets with Gulf of Mexico mid-cap company. (Swift Energy)
- Analyzed existing production, development, and exploration upside of client's Trinidadian assets, resulting in recommendation regarding viability of additional production train. (BP)
- Developed terms visualization model for negotiations with Kuwaiti Oil Company regarding Kuwait Operating Service Agreement (BP)
- Developed integrated asset model for mature producing field (BP—Wytch Farm)
- Working with Exploration Manager, Gulf of Mexico, developed 10 year Deepwater Gulf of Mexico exploration strategy for major oil company. Modelled financial performance of program, presented cases to upper management. (BP)
- Proposed strategy initiatives for client, recommended elements of global strategy based on modelling results and experience base. Initiated strategy implementation—agreed sale and purchase of subsea field. (Woodside)
- In conjunction with Deutsche Bank analysts, prepared reports on Elf and Lasmo exploration portfolio. Published research with Deutsche Bank Oil Team on Angolan deepwater developments. (Deutsche-Bank)
- Successful in delivery of foreign access initiatives in Brazil. Modelled exploration potential, prepared proposal documentation, prepared and presented internal corporate sanction documents, represented client in dealings with government officials. (BP)
- Evaluated client's portfolio in West Africa and prepared corporate planning scenario. (BP)
- Analyzed client's Colombian assets and evaluated critical components for delivery of commerciality. (BP)
- Analyzed financial performance of client's Gulf of Mexico assets including producing and unexplored properties. Prepared corporate planning case and presented forward strategies for achievement of corporate goals within budget constraints. (BP)
- Developed a model of deepwater drilling rig requirements based on client's future exploration planning and made recommendations regarding rig procurement levels and timing. (BP)

Cawley, Gillespie & Associates, Inc.: 1994 – 1996
Oil and Gas Consulting Firm
Fort Worth, Texas

Partner, International Operations - Managed London office as base of international operations. Responsible for business development of international opportunities.

- Fostered relationship with largest single corporate client. (BP)

- Negotiated rights to provide technical evaluation to Pertamina, the Indonesian State Oil Company.
- Led engineering and commercial evaluation teams for client in pursuit of Venezuelan exploration acreage resulting in successful bid. (BP)
- Evaluated client's Norwegian 15th round asset base and developed generalized model for future evaluations. (BP)
- Developed model for client's evaluation of Colombian assets. (BP)

British Petroleum, Plc.: 1984 – 1993

1988 - 1993

London, U.K.

Senior Commercial Analyst, Senior Reservoir Engineer, South Asia - Responsible for commercial evaluation and negotiation of new acreage entry opportunities. Negotiated first access to Vietnamese acreage in the South China Sea through farmin to holdings of the Indian National Oil Company (ONGC). Responsible for dealings with Petrovietnam, and other national oil companies in the South Asian region including: Petronas (Malaysia), Pertamina (Indonesia), CNOOC (Chinese National Offshore Oil Company), PTT (Thai National Oil Company).

1984 – 1988

Anchorage, Alaska USA

Commercial Analyst, Senior Reservoir Engineer, Alaska Exploration - Responsible for evaluation of Alaskan exploration opportunities. Provided commercial and reservoir engineering support for Lisburne, Kuparuk, and Niakuk groups. Responsible for reservoir management of all Prudhoe Bay waterflood areas.

Schlumberger Well Services: 1978 – 1982

Sales Engineer, Field Engineer, Gulf Coast and Michigan - Responsible for client development and provision of interpretation services in Michigan and Austin Chalk area. Supervised logging operations in Brenham, Texas, Victoria, Texas, and Houma, Louisiana.

Education:

B. A. Mathematics, University of Texas at Austin, 1976

B. S. Physics with Honors, University of Texas at Austin, 1977

M. S. Petroleum Engineering, University of Texas at Austin, 1984

Industry Involvement/ Publications:

- "The Future of the Gulf of Mexico in Delivering Gas Supplies," Anthony, J. L. (XMT, Inc.), Farnsworth, J. W. (BP Exploration), Rainey, D.I. (BP Exploration) presented at the North American Gas Supply Symposium, 24-25 September, 2001, Houston, Texas
- Program Committee Member and Reservoir Management Session Chairman for the 1992 SPE International Meeting in Beijing, China.
- BP Representative at Vietnam's first seminar on Oil and Gas Legislation, Vung Tau, Vietnam, March 1992.
- Presented paper analyzing the impact of various PSC terms at the 1991 International Symposium on Petroleum Economy, Wuxi, China.
- SPE 16957 "An Approach for the Determination of Economically Optimum Injection and Production Rates in a Large Multi-Pattern Waterflood," Anthony, J. L. and Meggs, A. J. M., presented at the 62nd Annual Technical Conference and Exhibition of the Society of Petroleum Engineers, September 27-30, 1987.
- "Theory of Two-Pulse Tracer Logging," Anthony, J. L. and Hill, A. D., Journal of Petroleum Technology, Production Engineering, October, 1986.

Languages:

Spoken and written Spanish: moderate comprehension

Spoken and written Portuguese: beginning comprehension

Spoken and written French: beginning to moderate comprehension

References:

JJ Traynor, EVP Investor Relations Shell International B.V. The Hague, The Netherlands

+31 70 377 8792

Tony Meggs, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, co-Chair Energy Studies +44-7979-703-279

Andres Zuzek, Senior Exploration Advisor BP Exploration, Houston, Texas 1-281-366-7455